

3rd in class essay questions 10-11

- 1. The American Revolution was spearheaded by many diverse individuals. Explain through the tactics and roles of three persons how this was accomplished.
- 2. The American Revolution came about through “spits and starts, explain this process in the time period 1700 through 1775. Support this essay with laws, actions, and philosophies to explain how the groundwork of revolution was laid in the Colonies.
- 3. “The American Revolution was the culmination of an unavoidable mistakes and misunderstandings in England and America from 1763 to 1776.” Why did the Colonies grow disconnected from Great Britain?
- 4. The French and Indian Wars were a prelude to the Revolution. Explain.
- 5. If you were a revolutionary book seller what books would you have stocked in your store? What criteria would you use to make the selections?
- 6. The American Revolution is squarely based in European ideals and philosophies. Explain this basis and how it manifested in the governments who controlled our Revolution.
- 7. Describe the nation in the post revolutionary period.
- 8. The Radicals and the Conservatives both had valid arguments in the post-revolutionary period. Argue one point of view and support your ideas with issues of the times.

